Accedes to Demands of Opponent for Return Bout.

New York, Aug. 27.—It is possible that Willie Lewis and Salior Burke may come together in another bout at the Fairmont A. C. As Lewis cannot secure Papke as an opponent, he has decided to listen to Burke's demand for a return match. Burke's demand for a return match.

They got together to-day to talk terms, FIFTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Ado-

Burke's demand for a return match. They got together to-day to talk terms, and there may be something doing in a few days. Burke quit in their last mixup and Lewis won easily, only after he was on the verge of a knockout.

No word was received here to-day from either Ketchell or Britt, who are still in San Francisco. The Fairmont Club officials say it is simply a question whether Ketchell will live up to his agreement to Seventher Race—one and one-sixteenth miles.
